From the Executive Director

Based on recent feedback, I want to remind everyone to be kind to each other. Respect each other's personal space. Do not enter a resident's apartment without their permission. Also, be mindful of the information you share with each other and respect each other's privacy. Give emergency personnel space when attending to emergent situations. This allows them space to do their job and allows privacy for those involved. Thank you all for being kind and courteous neighbors!

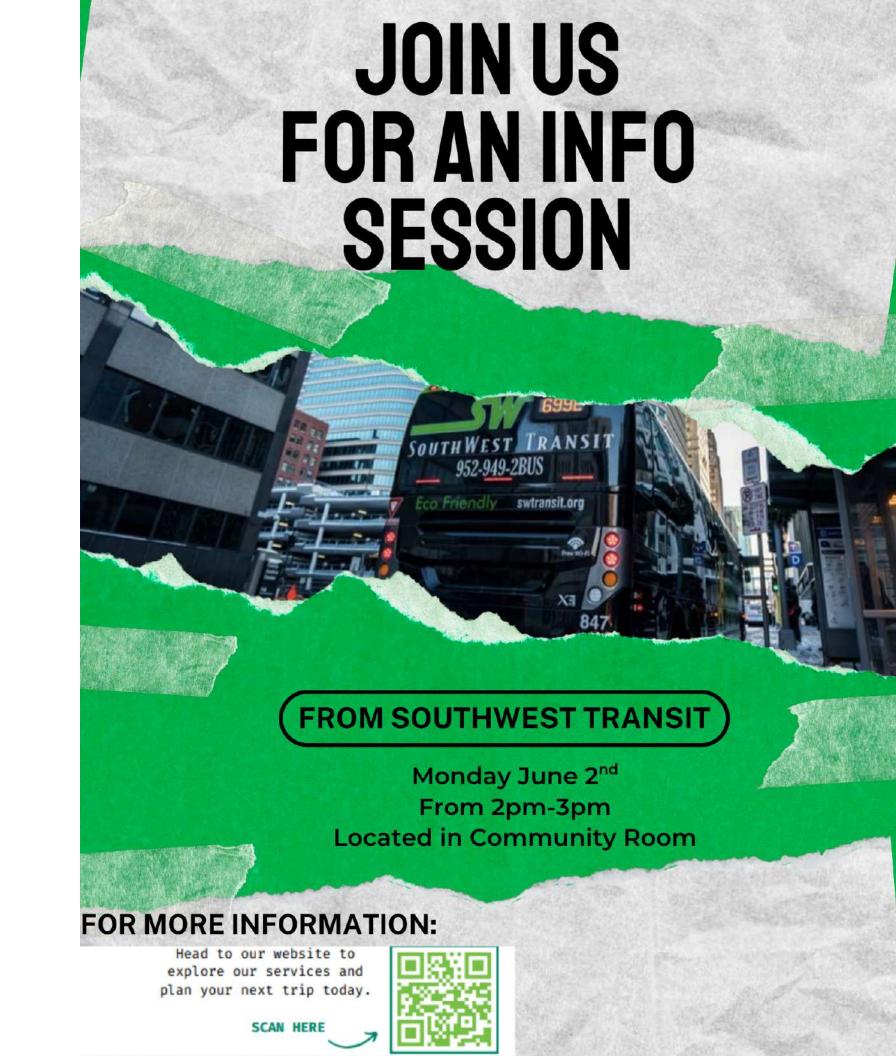

Feedback Responses:

Trash Debris: our gardening company should manage any spring clean up needs. In addition, our management team walked through both front entries and picked up debris last week. We do our best to maintain a clean space for all, but it does take a village. Please continue to notify us if you notice any significant needs.

Mail: I am working with our IT team to put together a simple way to insert a slide into the main screens allowing us to notify residents when mail arrives.

Trash Room Railings: Joe has all of the supplies needed and has cut the railings to size. He will continue to work on this project as time allows between other immediate building/resident needs.

Hazeltine Lounge: We're missing our white and blue coffee mugs. If you happen to have any of these in your apartment or see some around, please return them to the kitchen. Thank you! We want to make sure we have them available so we have something to offer our guests. Ami Fuller, Executive Director

Spiritual Life Offerings:

"Blessed are you who have the audacity to ask for the miracles you need, the healing or a new friend or a redeemed family. Blessed are you as you learn to trust, trust a God who hears, who listens, who hasn't left your side, who prays on your behalf, interpreting those deep groans you can't quite put into syllables or sounds. Blessed are you, as you settle into acceptance. And blessed are we who live here in the someday, but not now." -excerpt from a blessing for when you might not know how to pray (or want to) by Kate Bowler

When Kate Bowler was diagnosed with cancer in her early 30s, she discovered that it could be difficult to talk with people about what life was really like. We so often want everything to be okay, and sometimes that can be exhausting to our spirits! Today, receive this blessing, intended to bless the life you have, rather than the one you have wished for. For more like this, check out Kate's book The Lives We Actually Have.
